Ziger/Snead Architects Promotes Two to Associate

Baltimore, MD, October 11, 2012 – Ziger/Snead Architects, a leading Baltimore-based architecture firm, recently announced the promotion of two team members to Associate.

Nicole Lamont

Nicole Lamont has served as Ziger/Snead's Office Manager for more than fourteen years. With professionalism and compassion, she manages the millions of details needed to keep an office of architects running efficiently. She establishes and nurtures relationships with clients and friends, consultants and contractors, partners and spouses, children and pets.

"Every business needs a person like Nicole to make sure that everything runs smoothly," said Jamie Snead, Partner "we are fortunate to have had the very best for the past 14 years."

Katelin Etoh, CPSM

Katelin Etoh, CPSM joined Ziger/Snead in 2010 as Marketing Director. She is recognized for combining technical skills with strategic planning to more powerfully and more productively communicate information and successfully execute marketing and business development goals.

"Katelin is a brilliant marketer, a joy to work with, and a key leader in the firm," said Steve Ziger, Partner "she will be integral to helping us meet our goals as we continue to evolve and grow."

Katelin earned a Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies as well as in Visual Arts from Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. She is a Certified Professional Services Marketer and serves on the board for the Maryland Chapter of the Society for Marketing Professional Services.
